

Dr. Obama or: How to Live With and Love the Iranian Bomb according to the NYT and WSJ

BY GEORGE SALAMON / Media coverage can't please either side on the Israel-Palestine or Israel-Iran conflicts. Once that's accepted as a given, the differences in stories no longer garner much attention. The "liberal" media reveal bias for the Palestinian cause and are soft on Iran's nuclear ambitions and goal of wiping the Zionist entity off the map. The "conservative" press expresses uncritical support for Israel and fails to recognize Iran's legitimate quest to join the world's nuclear powers club, which includes Israel. That's the long-standing mantra of the complaints.
